TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Company: Afritek

Subject: Distributorship

CiP (Cable Installation Products (Pty) Ltd) and AIRSHRINK SA are South African manufacturers and distributors of heat shrinkable tubing and other components. Products included are heatshrink, LV and MV joints and terminations (including screened and un-screened bushing boots and connectors), torque shear lugs/connectors, spiral bind and various extrusions, end caps, cable repair sleeves and other specialized products. In order to give our customers the best assistance and support, we have set up joint ventures with foreign manufacturers such as elcon megarad (Italian) that are experts in the field of medium voltage heat shrinkable and coldshrink joints and terminations.

We hereby confirm that Afritek is an authorized stockist and distributor of CiP and Airshrink SA products. This includes the CiP, Ampletek and elcon megarad range of LV and MV joints, terminations and screened separable connectors. They are also able to offer sound technical advice on these products. We are in close co-operation with one another and should you require any additional information we are able to assist without delays.
